

DEAN OF STUDENTS OFFICE

Advocacy

The Dean of Students Office (<https://www.uwsuper.edu/student-life/support-and-services/dean-of-students-office/>) plays an important role in helping students navigate the campus environment and in providing programs and services that enrich students' personal and educational development. The staff in the Dean of Students Office office serve as advocates for students on a wide range of topics and assist students in making positive connections with staff, faculty, other students and services. Students are encouraged to contact the Dean of Students Office Office staff if they have question or concerns.

Community Standards

Each student at the University has the right to learn in an environment free from threats, danger, or harassment. Students also have the responsibility to conduct themselves in a manner that complies with campus policies and procedures. UWS Chapters 17 and 18 of the Wisconsin Administrative Code list the university policies students are expected to uphold and describes the procedures used when students are accused of misconduct. Chapter 17 also lists the possible responses the university may apply when a student is found to violate policy.

UW-Superior students are also obligated to complete course work with honesty and academic integrity. They also have the right to expect that all students will be graded fairly and have the right of due process should they be accused of academic misconduct. UWS Chapter 14 of the Wisconsin Administrative Code explains the policies and procedures that need to be followed in the case of academic misconduct. Policies related to student conduct can be found at www.uwsuper.edu/dos (<https://www.uwsuper.edu/student-life/support-and-services/dean-of-students-office/>). For a physical copy of policies, contact the Dean of Students Office (<https://www.uwsuper.edu/student-life/support-and-services/dean-of-students-office/>) Office directly.

Title IX

The University of Wisconsin-Superior is committed to providing educational programs, activities, and a workplace environment that are inclusive and free from discrimination, discriminatory harassment (including sexual harassment), sexual misconduct, and retaliation. Furthermore, UW-Superior is committed to the prompt and equitable investigative and resolution process of all complaints.
