

BIOLOGY (BIOL)

BIOL 681 Special Topics 1.00-4.00

In-depth study of specialized current topics in biology selected by the faculty on the basis of student/community interest. May include workshops, seminars, field trips, special problems, independent study, etc. Course may be repeated when topics are different. Instructor permission to enroll in this course.

Typically Offered:

- On-campus: Select Semesters;