

TEACHING, ASSOCIATE OF SCIENCE

Requirements

The following 60 credits represent the courses to be completed in alignment with UW-System guidelines for associate degrees. A minimum cumulative GPA (based upon calculation of UW-Superior's Honors GPA) of 2.75 is required for admission into the Teacher Education Program at UWS.

A minimum grade of C is required for all TED/MTHED courses with the exception of T ED 100 Orientation to Teacher Education and T ED 200 Introduction to Education. A minimum grade of B is required for T ED 200 Introduction to Education and a PASS is required for T ED 100 Orientation to Teacher Education. T ED 100 Orientation to Teacher Education and T ED 200 Introduction to Education should be taken concurrently and during the semester in which 40 collegiate credits will be reached.
