

INCLUSIVE METHODS CERTIFICATE (MICROCREDENTIAL)

This 6 - credit Certificate provides knowledge about selection of assistive technology (for learning and activities of daily living needs) as a means for including individuals with disabilities in school environments and society to the greatest extent possible. Exploration of collaboration techniques for school professionals and community agencies is also discussed.

The completion of the two undergraduate-level courses with a grade of C or better in each course will result in a digital badge.

Code	Title	Hours
SPED 488	Methods in Special Education	3.00
SPED 493	Inclusive Management Strategies	3.00
Total Hours		6.00