

INDIGENOUS HISTORY, SOVEREIGNTY, AND CULTURAL AWARENESS CERTIFICATE (MICROCREDENTIAL)

The Indigenous History, Sovereignty, and Cultural Awareness microcredential promotes the concept of indigenous education for everyone. Combining courses in multicultural education, indigenous history, art and culture, and contemporary issues with an emphasis on academic service-learning, the microcredential provides current educators and educators in training with the opportunity to gain competency in equity and inclusion by developing an awareness, attitude, knowledge, and skills required to learn, teach about, and engage with Indigenous nations while recognizing the systems, structures, and policies of racism, including settler colonialism toward Indigenous people.

Certificate requirement of 12 credits, as follows:

Code	Title	Hours
T ED 270	Multicultural Education	3.00
INDG 223 or INDG 224	American Indian History I American Indian History II	3.00
INDG 304 or INDG 110	American Indian Literature American Indian Art and Culture	3.00
INDG 330	Contemporary Issues in American Indian Society	3.00
Total Hours		12.00