

VISUAL ARTS

Program Description

UW-Superior's Visual Arts Department offers many options that enable you to develop your talents and pursue a meaningful career. Students can major in Visual Arts with concentrations in Art Education (<http://catalog.uwsuper.edu/undergraduate/academic-departments/visual-arts/visual-arts/visual-art-major-education-concentration-comprehensive/>), Art Therapy (<http://catalog.uwsuper.edu/undergraduate/academic-departments/visual-arts/visual-arts/visual-art-major-therapy-concentration-comprehensive/>) or Studio Art (<http://catalog.uwsuper.edu/undergraduate/academic-departments/visual-arts/visual-arts/visual-art-major-studio-concentration-bfa-comprehensive/>).

Mission

The Visual Arts Department of the University of Wisconsin-Superior prepares students to be innovative, reflective, articulate and ethical professionals. Students develop technical and relational competence, informed aesthetic discernment, and a contextual understanding of contemporary practices with a commitment to diversity.

Programs

- Art Minor
- Visual Art Major - Art Education Concentration (Comprehensive)
- Visual Art Major - Art Therapy Concentration (Comprehensive)
- Visual Art Major - Art, Studio Art Concentration (Bachelor of Fine Arts) (Comprehensive)

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Visual Art majors will develop self-awareness and self-expression through artistic inquiry.
2. Visual Art majors will make engaging works of art.
3. Visual Art majors will identify, describe, evaluate, and interpret art forms using the art historical vocabularies, theories, and contexts relevant to the cultures from which they originate.
4. Visual Art majors will demonstrate effective spoken and written communication.
5. Visual Art majors will promote self-awareness and expression in others.

Faculty and Staff

Timothy Cleary, Professor
Gloria Eslinger, Professor
Olawole Famule, Professor
Michael Maguire, Professor, Department Chair
Shannon Cousino, Assistant Teaching Professor
Susan Maguire, Assistant Teaching Professor
Anne Dugan, Lecturer
Zach Nader, Lecturer