Notes:

To be certified, a Spanish Teacher Certification Minor must pass Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction certification requirements, including a passing score on the state-identified licensure exam prior to student teaching. To reach the mandated level of language competence, all Spanish Teacher Certification Minors will be required to spend time in study abroad usually at UW-Superior's cooperating institution in Costa Rica (or to participate in an alternative 30-day immersion experience). This Minor must be completed with the Instruction Minor and a semester of student teaching to fulfill teacher licensure requirements.
