

WRITING MAJOR

Requirements

30 total credits: 15 must be 300+ level

Code	Title	Hours
Core
WRIT 250	Introduction to Creative Writing	3.00
WRIT 303	Introduction to Rhetoric	3.00
Writing in Genres
Select two of the following:		6.00
WRIT 301	Advanced Creative Writing: Nonfiction
WRIT 308	Nature Writing
WRIT 350	Advanced Creative Writing: Fiction
WRIT 352	Advanced Creative Writing: Poetry
WRIT 353	Advanced Creative Writing: Cross-genre
Writing and Rhetoric
Select six credits of the following:		6.00
WRIT 307	English Grammar
WRIT 310	Grant Writing
WRIT 309	Technical Writing
WRIT 401	Advanced Rhetoric: Theory and Practice
WRIT 409	Digital Writing
WRIT 420	Language, Narrative and Unconscious Bias
WRIT 450	Special Topics in Rhetoric
WRIT 480	Writing and Well-being
Senior Year Experience
Select one of the following:		3.00
WRIT 490	The Writer's Portfolio
WRIT 495	Writing Internship ¹
Electives
Select nine credits of the following: ²		9.00
WRIT 270	Contemporary Topics in Writing
WRIT 360	The Literary Magazine
WRIT 470	Special Topics in Writing
Six elective credits may be selected from the following:
ANTH 340	Language, Power, and Identity
COMM 203	News Writing and Reporting
COMM 304	Digital Storytelling and Social Media
COMM 348	Writing for Stage and Screen
LSTU 305	Methods of Legal Research and Writing
MUSI 162	Songwriting
ITS 148	Computer Applications for Productivity
FNS 304	American Indian Literature
Any 300+ ENGL course
Total Hours		30.00

¹ Must be 3 credits if taken to fulfill the Senior Year Experience.

² Any WRIT course taken beyond satisfaction of a requirement can be counted as an elective.

15 credits must be taken in courses at the 300 or 400 level.

The Writing Major is offered as a Bachelor of Arts degree only. Students seeking the B.A. in Writing must complete 6 credits in a world language as determined by the Writing Program.

All majors must complete one Academic Service-Learning (AS-L) project and one course infused with Center for Undergraduate Research, Scholarship and Creative Activity (URSCA). These High-Impact Practices are in required courses in the major.